

We invite chapter contributions to an edited volume on "Indigenous entrepreneurship in Southeast Asia".

The volume will be published with Palgrave Macmillan and will be part of Book Series "Palgrave Studies in Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Indigenization in Business" (Series Editor: Prof Eddy S. Ng): <https://link.springer.com/series/17011>

"Indigenous" refers to "the people who originally lived in a place, rather than people who moved there from somewhere else" (Cambridge Dictionary, 2022). Subsequently, indigenous entrepreneurship "is the creation, management and development of new ventures

- Braten, & Rudie, I. (2013). . Brill: Leiden, the Netherlands.
- Cambridge dictionary (2022). Retrieved from:
<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/english/indigenous>
- Colbourne, R. (2017). Indigenous entrepreneurship and hybrid ventures. In Corbett, A. C., & Katz, J. A. (Eds.), 9 , pp. 93-149. Emerald Publishing Limited: Bingley, United Kingdom.
- Hindle, K., & Lansdowne, M. (2005). Brave spirits on new paths: Toward a globally relevant paradigm of indigenous entrepreneurship research.
, (2), 131-141.
- International Monetary Fund (2021). Retrieved from: <https://data.imf.org/?sk=ABFF6C02-73A8-475C-89CC-AD515033E662>
- Isabella, K. (2020). Retrieved from:
<https://www.itworldcanada.com/blog/barriers-and-hurdles-indigenous-entrepreneurship-in-canada/436007>
- Kristiansen, S. (2002). Competition and knowledge in Javanese rural business.
, (1), 52-69.
- Mika, J. P., Warren, L., Foley, D., & Palmer, F. R. (2017). Perspectives on indigenous entrepreneurship, innovation and enterprise. , (6), 767-773.
- Minniti, M. (2010). Female entrepreneurship and economic activity.