

A Place to call home

Finding somewhere to live and make home is important for your wellbeing. Having your own private space where you feel safe, comfortable, relaxed, and where you know you can stay for a length of time is fundamental for good mental health.

Before you begin searching for a new home, consider the following:

- x Am I looking for short term or long term accommodation? Do I need somewhere to live for a few weeks, a semester, or longer?
- x How much can I afford to pay in rent? Can I also afford food, electricity, internet, phone, transport costs and the things I like to do?
- x Do I want to live on-campus or off-campus?
- x
